

DetReIDX Dataset License Terms and Access Request Form

Dataset Usage Terms and License Agreement

The DetReIDX dataset is released strictly for non-commercial, academic research purposes only. Access to the dataset requires a formal request submitted via an official institutional email address (e.g., `name@university.edu`). Any requests from non-institutional domains (e.g., Gmail, Yahoo, Outlook) will be rejected without review.

Eligibility and Access

Dataset access is restricted to researchers affiliated with:

- Accredited academic institutions,
- Public universities,
- Government research organizations.

Requests must originate from a faculty member, postdoctoral researcher, or graduate-level student under academic supervision. Each request must include:

- A signed letter on institutional letterhead confirming the applicant's academic affiliation,
- A brief research proposal outlining intended dataset usage,
- Acceptance of all terms described in this license.

Important: Access is granted strictly on a per-user basis. Even if multiple researchers are from the same institution or lab, each individual must submit a separate request. The dataset may not be shared internally within departments, labs, or institutions without prior written approval.

Send your signed request to: `n1947@ubi.pt` or `kailas.srt@gmail.com`

Dataset Custodian: Kailash A. Hambarde

Affiliation: Researcher, Universidade da Beira Interior (UBI), Covilhã, Portugal

Contact Email: `n1947@ubi.pt` or `kailas.srt@gmail.com`

Task-Specific Distribution Policy

The DetReIDX dataset is modular and available task-wise (e.g., detection, tracking, re-identification, action recognition). Users will receive only the portion relevant to the approved scope.

- Additional modules require a separate request and approval.
- A password-protected ZIP will be sent for each approved module.
- Passwords are user-specific and non-transferable.
- ZIP files and passwords must not be shared, reused, or distributed internally or externally.
- Misuse or unauthorized access will result in permanent blacklist and possible legal action.

Strict Usage Restrictions

By accessing or using DetReIDX, you agree to the following binding restrictions:

- Commercial use is strictly prohibited.
- Redistribution is not allowed, including within the same institution.
- Do not share your ZIP file or password with colleagues, lab mates, or collaborators.
- Use is limited to the approved individual only.
- Public hosting, uploading, or sharing of dataset or derivatives is strictly forbidden.
- No public release of dataset embeddings.

Audit and Enforcement

To ensure compliance:

- Download activity may be logged (email, timestamp, IP),
- Published work and repositories may be monitored for violations,
- Misuse will lead to permanent revocation and public blacklisting,
- Legal or institutional consequences may be pursued.

Limitation of Liability

The dataset is provided “as-is”, with no warranty. The authors and institutions disclaim all liability for any direct or indirect consequence of its use.

Privacy and Jurisdictional Compliance

You must not attempt to link dataset identities to real individuals or disclose sensitive data. Usage must fully comply with data privacy laws (e.g., GDPR, CCPA).

License Agreement

By downloading or using DetReIDX, you agree that:

1. You will use the dataset for academic, non-commercial research only.
2. You will not share or redistribute the dataset or access credentials.
3. You will not allow unregistered individuals to use the data, even within your institution.
4. You will cite the dataset paper and respect all legal and ethical boundaries.

Access Request Form

Instructions: Print this form on institutional letterhead, sign it (and supervisor if applicable), and email it from your institutional account.
